LAST RIGHTS OF THE GRADUATING

BY WELDON WALL

Well, I've made it finally, I think. Graduating from college was never really a goal of mine. It just happened. Having started school when Nixon was President, it seems nice that there will be no more final exams or any other type of assignment that I would managed to put off till the very first minute it was late. The real world doesn't scare me that much because I don't really plan on working anyhow. The main thing that you must remember is that you have to keep enjoying life at every possible moment. Time is becoming an enemy of your youth so...so...so have as much sex as you possibly can. Now this is not a slap against monogamy or safe sex or a vote for very large orgies, but this is a reminder to copulate as often as you can. If you have one boyfriend or one girlfriend then bop him/her as often as you can. Laugh or be disgusted but I'm telling you time is also the enemy of the hard-on. Jesus, what am I doing?! I have really enjoyed my education here at USC and am definately proud to be a Trojan alumni. I have learn things both in and out of class at the "University of South Central" that will last a lifetime. Working on the 28th Street Magazine has also been a valuable experience. I would like to thank the Core Feature Staff for their excellent support in the art of being stupid, and would like to thank myself for being here. I would also like to thank the following people for the following reasons: Thanks to Marcus, Jane and Laura for allowing me the chance to ruin their magazine. Thanks to Gordon Gary and Tony Salerno for making life colorful. (Ya got to hand it to those guys, they say what they want to say) ...not that I would ever agree, anyway, also thanks to Kathy McCallum for not shooting me at any point during the year. And thanks again to Jim Cox, Jeff Ruggels, Tom Rule, Shawn Hannie, Peter Gutzwiller, Robert Ruchti, Aaron Lopresti, Paul Kim, J. P. Lomonico, Rob Boesel, Jay Chozen, Marc Rezzonico, Bob Bainbridge, Erik Brannon, and lovely Mongo who I will always carry in my hard-on...heart! Heart! In my heart I will carry Mongo. (Someday I'll have a reason to live)
