THE TERRORS OF 28TH STREET!

ROW PIRATES

They're mean. They're bad. They're not even nice.

'These pirates be vicious, aye?

Crack reporter Flip Ruggels.

ROW PIRATES!

DATELINE: MARCH 20, 1988

The dreaded Row Pirates resurfaced Sunday creating a day of terror and confusion on the Row. Taking advantage of the traditional mass exodus of Greeks on Friday, anarchy reigned this weekend as these scoundrels saw fit to impose their rule. Luckily, 28th St. Feature photographer Flip Ruggels captured these shocking photos of the day of doom.

They want your property!

Row Pirates rarely apologize for their actions.

PIRATES of the ROW

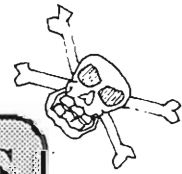

9:35 AM

THE AGONY BEGINS

In typical Row Pirate form, Captain Komode and his band of GDIs began their reign of terror by blatantly stealing things that were not their own. A high disregard for crosswalks was also displayed by these vandals of society.

ROW PIRATES

Once former employees of seafood restaurants and ex-OCC mascots, these buccaneers of doom banded together to take from the rich and to give to themselves.

10:30 AM Sunbather Stolen!

Here Row Pirates steal innocent sorority president off of front lawn. Her safe return was granted only after promising a pledge exchange with Row Pirate organization.

TIS RUMORED:
Captain Komode has a wife named Porcelain.

The theme for pledge party has yet to be determined.

12:30 PM Drive By Stabbings!

Despite limited range of weaponry, Row Pirates inflicted many casualties upon innocent pedestrians. Saddened by the lack of victims, Captain Komode plans to hack his way through the next LA Marathon.

TIS RUMORED:
The ghost of Clara Bow
haunts SC football locker rooms.

Captain Komode kill per slash ratio is among the best in pirating.

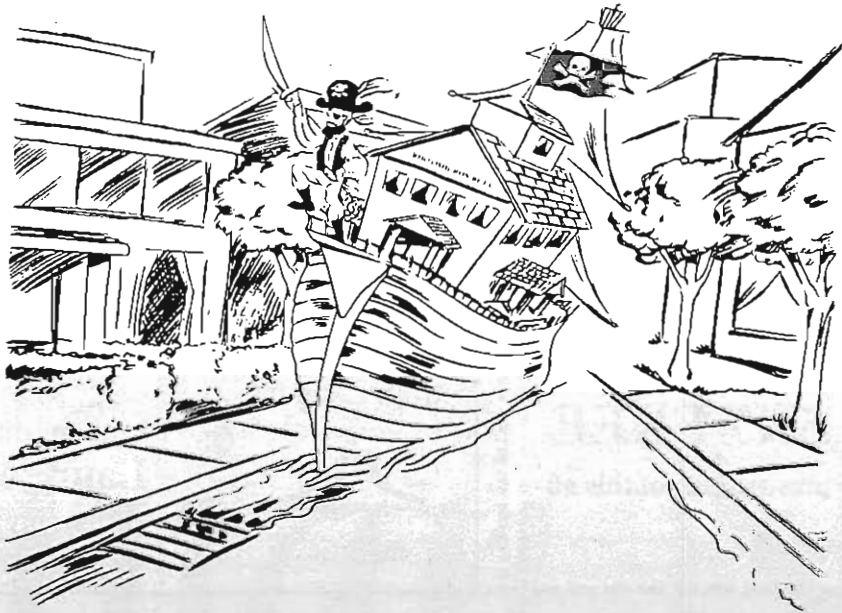

1:10 PM

Row Pirates huddle for next offensive move.

1:50 PM

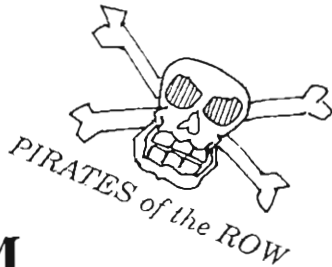

Vandalism is not above Komode and his cohorts.

TIS RUMORED:
Row Pirates have a
ship disguised as a frat house.

Captain Komode's reign of anarchy ended on the lawn of Phi Delt.

2:15 PM
The Row Strikes Back

Returning early from their Honolulu retreat, loyal Row members saved the day by capturing the evil Captain Komode as he attempted to escape. The Row is safe once more due to the heroics of these men.

TIS RUMORED:
Komode's nicknames include Fakebeard and Captain Pillowbelly
